REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record fails to disclose an a sealing material comprising a straight bottom edge having a first end and a second end; an arched convex edge; a first projecting edge; a concave inlet portion; a second projecting edge; a straight sloping edge connected directly with an end of the arched convex edge and connected directly with the second projecting edge; and a corner portion. The closest prior art, Frisch (US Patent No. 5,513,674), fails to disclose the a straight sloping edge connected directly with an end of the arched convex edge and connected directly with the second projecting edge and there is no motivation, absent the applicant's own disclosure, to modify the Frisch reference in the manner required by the claims.
